DECISION AND ORDER

Pursuant to the St. Regis Mohawk Vehicle and Traffic Ordinance, passed on May 30, 2000, and the companion Tribal Council Resolution numbered TCR 2001-25, a hearing was conducted with respect to the above referenced matter.

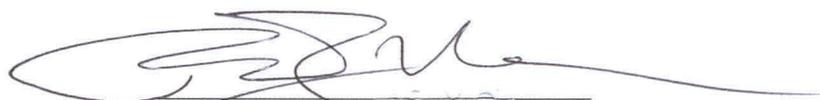

Procedurally, on February 28, 2011, Ms. Amanda L. Reyome received a summons, ticket #12183, written by SRMT Tribal Police Officer Theodore Cook, for following too closely. The summons received by Ms. Reyome was returnable to Tribal Traffic Court on March 14, 2011.

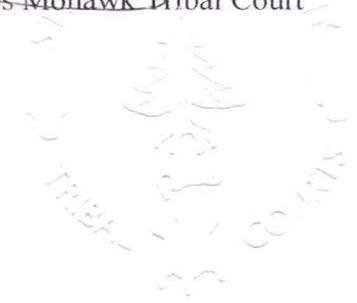

The Court received on April 1, 2011, a Notice of Appearance from Vaughn Aldrich on behalf of Ms. Reyome, which also asked for an adjournment and a request for a Demand to Produce. A notice of hearing was then issued by the Tribal Court, and on April 13, 2011 a hearing was scheduled with respect to the summons received by Ms. Reyome. The adjournment was granted and the new hearing date was scheduled for April 27, 2011 at 11:00 am.

At the hearing the Defendant met the evidentiary standard in the Tribal Vehicle and Traffic law. Therefore, ~~for the reason specified above~~ the Court hereby dismisses the ticket issued to Ms. Reyome.

Entered by my hand on this 2nd day of May, 2011

Peter J. Herne, Chief Judge,
St. Regis Mohawk Tribal Court
