Comments Sought on GM Bankruptcy Settlement Agreement

Akwesasne Territory. The St. Regis Mohawk Tribe Environment Division is seeking comments on the proposed GM bankruptcy settlement agreement. This agreement has been negotiated by the US Department of Justice for the final settlement of all bankruptcy obligations of Motor's Liquidation Company (formerly General Motors) involving environmental cleanup of contaminated properties including the Massena GM property. The US government, several states with GM contaminated sites and the Tribe were involved in the negotiations to get an agreement in bankruptcy court for the cleanup of these sites. The document is available at the Environment Division offices. Comments will be accepted until Kentenhko:wa/November 29, 2010. Contact Craig Arquette at 518-358-5937 to obtain the document or if you have any questions.
