DRUG ENFORCEMENT AGENCY CONDUCTS RAID

Suspect to be Arraigned on Federal Charges

AKWESASNE TERRITORY – The McGee Road residence of Randy Square was the target of a search warrant and raid in the early morning hours of Tuesday, February 10th. The St. Regis Mohawk Tribal Police assisted the Federal Drug Enforcement Agency (DEA) with executing the search warrant and in making the arrest of Mr. Square. “This is the DEA’s case,” said Tribal Police Chief Andy Thomas. “Although we provided minimal assistance with this particular investigation, we work in cooperation with outside law enforcement agencies as we strive to keep Akwesasne a safe and secure community.”

Square was transported to Plattsburgh where he will soon be arraigned in court on federal charges of conspiracy to posses and traffic in marijuana. Although it was not clear, it appears that the DEA had been conducting its investigation for some time prior to the early morning raid and arrest.
