MOHAWK BINGO PALACE HOSTS 17TH ANNUAL SENIORAMA

Large Turn-Out Expected

Akwesasne Territory. Hundreds of the North Country's Baby Boomer generation will enjoy food and fun at the Mohawk Bingo Palace on August 14th as the annual Seniorama Event takes place. The event will include free entertainment provided by Marty Robertson, guest speakers, raffles and a trade show with information that is specific to the ages of the special guests.

"Although this event is in its seventeenth year, the Bingo Palace has hosted it for the past seven years," said Janique Odjick, Marketing Manager for the Bingo Palace. "We expect about 900 people to attend the event."

Participants will have the opportunity to meet State Senator Darrel Aubertine and State Assemblywoman Senator Dede Scozzafava at the event. "We are providing the opportunity for our guests to speak directly to their elected officials to make sure that they understand the issues that are important to Baby Boomers," noted Odjick. "So not only will our guests have fun, they will be able to make their voices heard." Robert Miller, President of the North Country Senior Action Council, Carlton Doane, President of the New York State Senior Action Council along with John Edie, Past Executive Director of the Statewide Senior Action Council will also all be on hand to interact with guests and answer questions.

Members of the St. Regis Mohawk Tribal Council will be present to greet and welcome guests to the event. "Our culture has a great deal of respect for Elders, so the fact that we choose to host this event reflects that importance," said Tribal Chief Monica Jacobs.

Seniorama is a public event and community members and press are invited to attend, regardless of age.
