Native Artist Litefoot to Appear in Akwesasne

Highlighting the 20th Annual Wellness Day

Akwesasne Territory – Litefoot, will be appearing at the St. Regis Mohawk Tribe's Wellness Day on Thursday, August 5, 2010. He is an enrolled member of the Oklahoma Cherokee Tribe. Litefoot uses his music to educate people about the Native American experience and lectures at various colleges throughout the United States. He also spends time holding workshops and performing concerts for students throughout North America. Litefoot's latest CD, The Testament is due to be released on November 11, 2010. He will be giving a performance at 1:00 PM at Wellness Day.

Litefoot has starred in various feature films, including Indian in the Cupboard and has done several television guest appearances. He has served as co-chair of the National Indian Gaming Association's American Indian Business Network and as Vice President of Native Affairs for the Triple Five Group. They are the owners of the world's largest retail shopping malls.

His appearance and performance are in support of 20th Annual Wellness Day, sponsored by the St. Regis Mohawk Tribe. The event will be held at the Mohawk International Raceway on Thursday August 5th, from 10:00 AM to 4:00 PM. Members of the media are welcomed to attend this event.
