St. REGIS TRIBAL POLICE RESPOND TO SHOTS FIRED

Persons of Interest Have Been Identified

AKWESASNE TERRITORY – St. Regis Mohawk Tribal Police responded to a call between 1:30 and 1:45 AM on Thursday June 25th on Andrew Johnson Road in Akwesasne. Police discovered that a home invasion had taken place, that weapons were involved and a number of shots had been fired. Who fired the shots and how many shots were fired have not yet been determined. However, no injuries occurred as a result of the incident, but some items were stolen from the home.

Although Tribal Police have not made any arrests in connection with the case, the case is still currently under investigation and police have identified some “persons of interest.” If anybody has any information about the incident, they are encouraged to contact the Tribal Police Department at 518-358-9200.
