

SAINT REGIS MOHAWK TRIBE
ELECTION and REFERENDUM ORDINANCE
Amended April 10, 2009

I. Purpose

The purpose of this Ordinance is to provide uniform and consistent procedures for the management of Saint Regis Mohawk Tribal Elections and Referendums.

II. Definitions

1. "Civil Disobedience" means a deliberate, but nonviolent act of law breaking to call attention to a particular law or set of laws believed by the lawbreaker to be of questionable legitimacy or morality.
2. "Eligible voter's list" means a list, compiled by the Tribal Clerk, of enrolled members who meet the eligibility criteria under Section VU of this ordinance.
3. "Fraud" means a knowing misrepresentation of the truth or concealment of a material fact to induce another to act.
4. "Serious Crime" means a felony or misdemeanor, not involving an act of civil disobedience, which involves an act of moral turpitude. Crimes of moral turpitude are crimes involving dishonesty such as larceny, fraud or murder, for example.
5. "Special Election" means an election held at a time other than the regularly scheduled June election and which may be held to fill a vacant elective position for example.
6. "Valid Petition" shall mean a petition which contains the requisite number of valid signatures in order for the proposal to be approved in accordance with the Procedures Act.
7. "Valid photo identification" means identification, which contains a picture of the Tribal member, issued by a government entity and which is sufficient to establish a person's identity.

III. General Provisions

- A. Elections will be held annually on the first Saturday in the month of June and will commence at 9:00 a.m. and conclude at 5:00 p.m.
- B. The Candidate who receives the highest number of votes in a popular Election of eligible voters shall be declared elected to the position for which he or she ran.
- C. Each candidate may appoint one observer to oversee the election process.
- D. To be an appointed observer one must be an eligible voter of the Saint Regis Mohawk Tribe.

- E. To appoint an observer, a candidate must submit the observer's name to the Tribal Clerk's office at least 72 hours prior to the regularly scheduled Election, which will forward the name to the Board.
- F. An appointed observer will be allowed to observe the proceedings only. Observers shall not participate in any way with the ordinance, voting, or counting procedures.
- G. Observers shall not engage in any behavior that could be construed as harassing, intimidating or disruptive, to the general voting public nor shall observers interact with any voters.
- H. The appointed observer shall remain in the building where the Election is taking place for the duration of the Election.

The Board may ask for workers to help with the counting of the ballots and to oversee the election. The Board may ask the Tribal Council to pay a reasonable compensation to the election workers for their time. Compensation may include an hourly rate for non-Tribal employees and compensation time for Tribal employees.

- J. An eligible voter may vote only once for each position on the ballot.
- K. Cell phones, cameras and all other portable electronic devices will be prohibited by workers and appointed observers on the scheduled Election Day for the duration of the election.
- L. The Board has the authority to remove any individual found in violation of this ordinance from the polling area.

IV. Election Board

A. Appointment

1. The Tribal Council shall, through a Tribal Council Resolution, appoint a Tribal Election Board.
2. Board members shall be appointed for three (3) year terms.
3. The powers of the Board shall be as set forth in this Ordinance.

B. Qualifications

To serve on the Election Board, members must meet the criteria of an eligible voter as prescribed in Section VII of this Ordinance.

C. Powers, Oath and Responsibilities

1. Upon accepting the appointment, each member of the Board shall take and sign an oath that shall become part of the Board's records stating that he or she will serve according to the best of his or her ability and shall make every effort to prevent fraud or abuse in the Election process.
2. The Election Board shall have the power to conduct all Tribal Elections and Referendums and shall do so in accordance with this Ordinance.

3. Further, the Election Board shall have the power to conduct a recall election at the direction of the Ethics Officer upon a final determination of the Ethics Commission.
4. The Board shall perform all tasks required of it by this Ordinance and shall be responsible for the following:
 - a. Provide public notices of the time, date and place for Caucus, Elections, and Referendums.
 - b. Provide information on candidate and voter eligibility.
 - c. Call for and receive nominations.
 - d. Confirm candidates meet the eligibility criteria as prescribed in Section V with an affidavit prescribed by the Board.
 - e. Prepare ballots.
 - f. Ensure at least one (1) Saint Regis Mohawk Tribal Police Officer shall be present in the polling station from opening to closing and shall witness the counting process.
 - g. Verify with the Tribal Police Officer that all ballot boxes are empty prior to the start of voting.
 - h. Supervise the counting of ballots at the close of polls.
 - i. Prepare request to ensure ballot boxes are available for absentee voting.
 - j. Ensure eligible voters list is available in a timely manner. The Saint Regis Mohawk Tribal Clerk's office shall provide the Board with a finalized voters list 24 hours prior to the annual Election.
 - k. Arrange for necessary personnel to staff election tasks prior to the Elections.
 - l. Ensure sufficient number of voting booths.
 - m. Provide for tally sheets to record election results.
 - n. Officially and publicly announce election results.
 - o. Determine procedures for providing public access to Election Board Records.

D. Compensation

Each Board member shall be compensated at a rate set by the Tribal Council for the time spent discharging his or her responsibilities as a Board member.

E. Equipment and Materials - Payment of Expenses

The Board may procure equipment, supplies, materials, books, papers, and records of every kind, as well as for training in conducting elections, as the Board considers necessary to facilitate and assist in administering this ordinance, according to a budget approved by Tribal Council.

V. Eligibility of Candidates

A. Tribal Chief, Tribal Sub-Chief, and Tribal Clerk

Candidates for Tribal Chief, Sub-Chief and Tribal Clerk must possess the following qualifications:

 - iv. Previous experience as a magistrate or lay judge in any local or tribal court.

C. Incumbent Candidates

- 1. If a current elective official, who has not finished their current term, wishes to be a candidate for a different elective position or wishes to obtain other full-time employment, that official will be required to relinquish the remaining term of their current office.

2. The official will be required to provide written notice of their intent to resign their office to the Tribal Council one (1) week prior to the Tribal Caucus.
3. The Tribal Council shall confirm the resignation, inform the Board that there exists a vacancy on Council and shall direct the Board through a Tribal Council Resolution to include the vacant position among those positions to be filled in the next upcoming election.
4. The term of the vacant position shall be the number of years remaining on the resigned official's term.
5. The only elective officials exempt from the provisions of this section shall be Traffic Court Judges, who shall be permitted to retain their position as Traffic Judges while otherwise employed or seeking employment, so long as such employment does not constitute a conflict of interest with their appointment as a Traffic Court Judge.

D. Write-In Candidates

Should a person be declared the winner of an elective position and that person was not listed on the official ballot, that person must meet all requirements specified in Section V, except V.A.4., before their election to such position is certified by the Board.

VI. Term of Office

A. Chief and Sub-Chief

Pursuant to the referendum held on April 24, 2004, Tribal Council members shall be elected to staggered three (3) year terms.

B. Tribal Clerk

The Saint Regis Mohawk Tribal Clerk shall be elected to a 3-year term.

C. Tribal Judges

The term of office for all Judges, including Traffic Court Judges shall be three (3) years.

D. Vacancies

If a current elective position is vacated due to resignation, the official will be required to provide written notice of their intent to resign their office to the Tribal Council. Vacancies due to resignation, removal or death shall be filled as follows:

1. Vacancy of the Tribal Clerk's position:
 - a. The Tribal Council shall inform the Board that there exists a vacancy on Council and shall direct the Board through a Tribal Council Resolution to include the vacant position among those positions to be filled in the next upcoming election.

- b. The term of the vacant position shall be the number of years remaining on the Tribal Clerk's term.
 - c. Tribal Council may appoint an individual who would otherwise meet the qualifications, to the position until the next regularly scheduled election.
- 2. Vacancy of a Chief's position:
 - a. The vacant Chief's position shall be filled by his or her Sub-Chief for the number of years remaining on the Chiefs term.
- 3. Vacancy of a Sub-Chief's position:
 - a. Tribal Council may either leave the position vacant, or may appoint an individual, who would otherwise meet the qualifications, to the position of Sub-Chief until the next regularly scheduled election.
 - b. The Tribal Council shall direct the Board through a Tribal Council Resolution to include the vacant Sub-Chief position among those positions to be filled in the next upcoming election for the number of years remaining on the Sub-Chief's term.

VII. Eligibility of Voters

At the time of voting an eligible voter must:

- A. Be at least eighteen (18) years of age.
- B. Be an enrolled member of the Saint Regis Mohawk Tribe.
- C. Reside in the United States or in the U.S. portion of Akwesasne for at least six months immediately prior to the election.
- D. Have their name on the most current eligible voters list.

VIII. Absentee Voting

To vote by Absentee ballot an individual must:

- A. Contact the Tribal Clerk's office to request an "Absentee Ballot Application".
- B. Tribal Clerk's office shall confirm the eligibility of the voter.
- C. Upon confirmation of eligibility, the Tribal Clerk's office shall send via registered mail one "Absentee Ballot Application" and one "Ballot" for each position.
- D. The application must be notarized and returned with ballots.
- E. Ballots must be received by 12:00 p.m. the day of the Election.
- F. Absentee ballots will be kept in a locked ballot box in the Tribal Clerk's office and will be opened during the counting procedure.

- G. In-home voting will only be available for home bound eligible voters residing on the US portion of the Saint Regis Mohawk Reservation or within the area designated by the Election Board as the tribal land claim area. Home bound eligible voters must request this service and the Election Board shall keep a record of all requests. A member of the Election Board and a Notary will be available to provide this service.

IX. Caucus Procedure

Caucus will be held annually on the first Saturday in May and shall be held in accordance with the following procedures:

- A. The Board will call the Caucus to order at 10:00 a.m.
- B. The Board shall review the eligibility criteria for candidates.
- C. The Board will open the floor for nominations for the elective positions.
- D. Nominees for all elected positions can accept or refuse the nomination at the time of the Caucus or by the close of business on the Friday immediately following Caucus.
- E. Nominators must be an eligible voter as specified in Section VII.
- F. All prescribed forms for elective positions will be available at the time of Caucus and in accordance with nomination procedures.
- G. The Board shall call the Caucus to an end when all nominations are completed. The Board will then read aloud all nominations to provide all attendees with the unofficial list of candidates.
- H. The Board shall post an un-official list of candidates one (1) week after Caucus. All nominees are responsible for taking their drug test within three (3) business days of caucus. The Election Board will not be responsible for any nominee's failure to meet this requirement prior to the posting of the un-official list of candidates. The Election Board shall post the official list of candidates two (2) weeks after caucus.

X. Nominations

- A. Nominations shall be received at the scheduled Caucus.
- B. Nominations shall be received on forms prescribed by the Board. Any person whose name is on the eligible voters list has the right to nominate or second the nomination of any duly qualified person to run for the elective offices that are posted.
- C. No person may nominate or second more candidates than he or she is entitled to vote for.
- D. Once nominations are closed the Board shall require each candidate to establish their eligibility by completing an affidavit that he or she fulfills the eligibility requirements.
- E. The "Affidavit of Eligibility" must be completed and delivered to Tribal Clerk's Office by the close of business on the Friday immediately following the Caucus.

- F. Any nominee that does not meet the eligibility criteria of a candidate shall be deemed ineligible. Should eligibility be a question, the nominee has until the close of business on the Friday immediately following the Caucus, in which to prove his or her eligibility.
- G. Any candidate, who has accepted their nomination, may withdraw if they wish, by filing a "Notice of Withdrawal" as required by the Board, at least 48 hours before the scheduled Election.
- H. Once a candidate has withdrawn, the candidate may not reinstate their candidacy for that Election.
- I. A candidate who wishes to withdraw but fails to submit the "Notice of Withdrawal" by the prescribed time shall remain on the Ballot for the Election.
- J. If only one qualified candidate is nominated at the time of Caucus and no qualified person is elected via write-in ballot then that person shall be elected to that position.

XL Voting Procedure

- A. The Board shall issue ballots containing the following information:
 - 1. The Elective Position in question; and
 - 2. The names of all candidates running for the elective position.
- B. Any eligible voter who is in line at the polling station at the time of closing shall be entitled to vote.
- C. Each person presenting himself to vote must sign in and present their Tribal Enrollment card or valid photo identification prior to receiving their ballots for the election and must put their enrollment number next to their name.
- D. Upon receiving the ballot each voter shall:
 - 1. Immediately proceed to the designated voting area and place an (X) or check mark (√) in the box beside the name of the candidate for whom he or she is voting;
 - 2. Each ballot shall be placed in the designated ballot box for each electoral position.
 - 3. Once a person completes the voting process they must exit the polling place.
- E. A voter who inadvertently spoils a ballot may return it to the Board in order to obtain another ballot, and a Board member shall write or stamp the word "SPOILED" upon it, deposit it into the ballot box, and provide the voter with another ballot.
- F. Any person at the time of voting who decides not to vote must return the ballots to the Election Board and must exit the building immediately.
- G. No person is permitted to leave the polling place with any ballots in their possession. Election officials or Tribal Police shall, upon discovery, seize ballots in the possession of anyone leaving the polling place. Seized ballots will be marked "SEIZED" and "VOID". The provisions of this Section shall not apply to election officials required to move or process ballots as part of their official duties.

- H. Any person who attempts to deposit anything other than the ballots in the ballot box will be asked to leave the polling place.
- I. No person shall campaign nor shall any campaign paraphernalia be permitted on Tribal property during an election, special election or referendum. This includes emails to any facility that is under the jurisdiction of the Saint Regis Mohawk Tribe.
- J. Members of the media, as well as protestors, will not be permitted on Tribal property during an election, special election or referendum.
- K. Persons requiring assistance may take a person of their choosing to assist them to cast their ballot at the time of voting.

XII. Counting Procedure

- A. Immediately following the casting of the last ballot and the closure of the polling place, the Board shall, in the presence of the appointed observers and the Saint Regis Mohawk Tribal Police Officer open the ballot boxes one by one. As ballots are examined the Board shall:
 - 1. Reject and write or stamp "VOID" on all those ballots:
 - a. That do not have any markings of them
 - b. That have marks other than one (X) or check mark (√) in the assigned space
 - c. That contains more than one vote on the ballot.
 - 2. Report in writing on the backside of the ballot the reason for the rejection. The rejected ballot will be signed by all Election Board members to confirm the invalidity of the spoiled ballot.
 - 3. The ruling of the Election Board regarding the validity of a ballot shall be the final decision.
- B. In the presence of the Board and the Saint Regis Mohawk Tribal Police Officer, the election personnel shall:
 - 1. Count the confirmed ballots for each candidate;
 - 2. Upon conclusion of counting make a written statement of the number of confirmed votes and the number of rejected ballots; and
 - 3. Sign the written statement.
- C. Immediately following the counting of the ballots the Board shall:
 - 1. Publicly announce the unofficial winners of all elective positions; and
 - 2. Release a signed statement showing the number of votes that were cast at the time of the election and show the amount of votes for each candidate.
- D. In the event of a tie the Board may call for a recount of the ballots for the position in question.

- E. In the event the successful candidate for a position fails to take office, the position will be filled by a Special Election to be held in accordance with this Ordinance.
- F. After the confirmation of a tie, the Board shall call for a special election one week from the regular election for the position in which the Election Board has called a tie. The Special Election shall be conducted under Sections IV, VII, VIII, XI, and XII of this document.

XIII. Referendums

- A. A Tribal Referendum must occur within ninety (90) days of receipt of a valid petition or the 2/3 vote of Tribal Council. If a tribal Election is scheduled to be held within six (6) months of the receipt of the petition or Tribal Council vote, then the Referendum may coincide with the pending Tribal Election at the discretion of Tribal Council.
- B. The referendum question shall be presented to the community at a minimum of three (3) public meetings to be held at the Saint Regis Mohawk Tribal Community Building or another suitable location prescribed by the Board.
- C. The referendum question shall be posted in the Saint Regis Mohawk Tribal Community Building, at least one local newspaper, and shall be aired as an announcement on CKON Radio Station at least thirty (30) days prior to the date of the Referendum.
- D. The community announcement must include the following information:
 - 1. Referendum question
 - 2. Date of Referendum
 - 3. Polling location for Referendum
 - 4. Polling location hours
 - 5. Contact information should a community member have questions
- E. At least one (1) Saint Regis Mohawk Tribal Police Officer shall be present in the polling station from opening to closing and shall witness the counting process.
- F. Eligibility of voters for a referendum shall be the same as prescribed in Section VII of this Ordinance.
- G. The Saint Regis Tribal Clerk's office shall provide the Board with a final eligible voter's list 24 hours before the scheduled referendum.
- H. Absentee voting shall be the same as prescribed in Section VIII of this Ordinance.
 - 1. The Referendum results shall be decided by a majority of eligible voters casting ballots in the Tribal Referendum.
- J. No minimum number of voters must cast ballots in order for the results of a Tribal Referendum to be adopted.
- K. The numerical results of a Referendum shall be certified by the Board. The Saint Regis Mohawk Tribal Council shall signify acceptance of the results by the passage of a Tribal Council Resolution.

L. Any appeals to the results of a Referendum shall be dealt with in accordance with Section XIV of this Ordinance.

M. Petitions

Upon submission and acceptance by the Board, a petition shall be deemed final and complete and no further signatures shall thereafter be added. The Board shall use the following procedures for processing petitions:

1. Acknowledge receipt of Petition, in writing, addressed to the individual presenting the Petition.
2. As of the date of the submission of the Petition, the Tribal Clerk will generate the Eligible Voters List and determine both the number of eligible voters of the SRMT and the number of valid signatures required for a Petition to be successful.
3. In order for a signature to be valid, the individual signing the Petition must be on the Eligible Voters List as of the date of the submission of the Petition.
4. Verify each signature by reviewing the Petition against the Eligible Voters List.
5. Valid signatures for a Petition must include:
 - a. Printed Name
 - b. Signature
 - c. Enrollment Number
 - d. Date of Birth
6. If the signature does not contain all of these requirements, but the Election Board can ascertain whether the individual is an eligible voter, the signature shall be accepted and counted,
7. The Election Board shall make the final determination as to the validity of any signature and may take into consideration whether the signature is legible, whether an individual has signed multiple times, or whether a name properly matches with an enrollment number, among other considerations.
8. Once all of the signatures have been reviewed:
 - a. If the Petition contains the required number of valid signatures, the Petition shall be verified and presented to Tribal Council for action to call for a referendum in accordance with the Petition.
 - b. If the Petition does NOT contain the required number of valid signatures, a written notice will be sent to the individual who presented the Petition notifying him/her that the Petition has been denied and shall state the reasons for the denial.

XIV. Appeals

Any appeals must be in writing and addressed to the Board within five (5) business days immediately following the Election or Referendum. The Election Board shall determine the course of action taken on the appeal and shall provide a formal opportunity for the complainant to be heard. All decisions made by the Election Board shall be final.

The Saint Regis Mohawk Tribal Council has duly adopted this Ordinance which shall be known as the Election and Referendum Ordinance.
