Tribe Begins Formation of Electrical Co-op Board of Directors

Akwesasne Territory – The St. Regis Mohawk Tribe is seeking candidates for the Board of Directors of its Mohawk Electric Cooperative (MEC). To be eligible for appointment to the Board, individuals must be at least 25 years of age, knowledgeable and/or have experience or is capable of being trained in the following fields: financial management, human resources, natural resources, utilities management, law, engineering, economic development, accounting, general business or other areas as determined by the Tribal Council. The Board will hold monthly meetings, plus special meetings when necessary. Compensation will be based on payments per meeting. Twenty to 40 hours of training will also be required.

The Board will consist of five Directors who will manage the general affairs and business of the MEC. The by-laws require that a majority of the Board consist of St. Regis Mohawk Tribal members. Board members will be appointed for staggered terms: one position for an initial period of one (1) year, two positions for an initial period of two (2) years and two positions for an initial period of three (3) years. After the initial appointments, Tribal Council will appoint all Board Members for three-year terms. Directors will receive a salary or compensation for their services as determined by Tribal Council.

Interested individuals may apply by sending a copy of their resume and professional references to: St. Regis Mohawk Tribal Council, 412 State Route 37, Akwesasne, NY 13655, Attention: MEC Board. Resumes must be postmarked on or before April 30, 2010 in order to be considered for application.
