Tribe to Provide Winter Fuel Allotment

Applications Now Available

Akwesasne Mohawk Territory – The St. Regis Mohawk Tribe has authorized an allotment of winter fuel assistance to eligible households.

In order to be eligible for the fuel allotment program, the applicant must be responsible for heating source bills for the household, provide their current Tribal identification card, two proofs of residency and account information for a SRMT licensed home heating fuel dealer.

The allotment for Tribal members residing within the jurisdiction of the SRMT and meeting all other requirements is $700. The allotment for Tribal members not residing within the jurisdiction of the SRMT and meeting all other requirements is $350.

Applications will be accepted at the Compliance and Food Distribution offices until January 28, 2011. Should individuals have any questions they may contact the Food Distribution or Compliance offices at (518) 358-2272.
